LETTER TO MR. BEECHER

Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, Brooklyn:

SIR:—I have just read your letter of the 17th April, 1869, relating to the charges in circulation against you of having carried away from Charleston, in 1865, the records of St. Michael's Church, etc., in which you say that you took "nothing away but a heavy heart, that a city of your own country should be so utterly destroyed by war."—Again, you say that you bethink yourself—you brought away an old family Bible, which had been save from a burning house on some plantation, and presented to you by an officer of a colored regiment, all the facts connected with which you entered on the fly leaf, thinking that after peace came the family might perhaps be happy to regain this memorable old book, printed in 1679, etc.

Now, my dear sir, the confession that you left Charleston with a heavy heart because of its utter desolation by war comes with a bad grace from one who, while he could have done much to have averted the ravages of war, did all he could to precipitate and aggravate it with all its horrors, by desecrating the pulpit in which you officiated by a tirade of abuse every Sabbath against the South, and instead of extending the olive branch of peace, you were calling for the rifle and the sword to be used in the most ferocious manner against those for whom you now possess sympathy. But the Bible—that book from which you pretend to speak words of consolation, peace and rectitude to a dying world, you secretly received as a present from a negro, knowing at the same time that it did not belong to him or yourself, that it was stolen property, and that you had no more right, legally or morally to take and hold it as your own than you had to have availed yourself of the darkness of the night and gone into the house of your unsuspecting victim and feloniously taken and carried it away.

Again, you say that after peace came this family (to whom it belonged) might perhaps be happy to regain this venerable old book, printed in 1679. Did you ever make an effort to make that family happy by informing any member of it, through your press or otherwise, that you had it, and was ready to restore it? Did you ever use any means to enable them to regain it? No, your own letter carries a denial of that fact on its face, and the first awakening influence that struck your divinity was the damning report that was whispered into your ears by your friend, that charges were made against you—that you had seized and made off with said book. And it was only to relieve yourself from the odium of the charge of theft or robbery, that your moral sense became aroused to action. In the same way, the thief, when tracked to his den with stolen property, gives it up, when concealment is no longer profitable.

This valuable and highly cherished old family relic, that had been preserved for two centuries, and handed down from sire to son for ten generations, was seized and carried away by yourself, under the power of the bayonet, pointed against a conquered and powerless people, who were not permitted to claim the most sacred heir loom when in the possession of a negro or Yankee preacher. Had you stolen a deck of cards under the same circumstances, there might have been some excuse, but when you put your hand upon that sacred book, and conceived the thought of self-appropriation, you should have thought of the fate of Ananias and Sapphira, for you were guilty of an offense in the sight of Heaven more heinous and offensive, for they were ignorant, and lied to save what they conceived to be their own, while you feloniously took and concealed God's Holy Book and ordinances, which say, in burning words, "Thou shalt not steal!"

Keep the book and read it. Perhaps you may, while examining it for curiosity, be directed by the all seeing eye to some paragraph which has stood as a beacon to the erring for two hundred years, and may lead you from the shores and quicksands to which you are hastening with railroad speed. And if reformation be impossible, you may at least become acquainted with the commandment which says, thou shalt not steal; thou shalt not covet.

Keep the book, and when you die, leave it as a legacy to your children. Doubtless if they are proper representatives of the father, they will cherish it as a treasure gained in the same manner, and under circumstances similar to most of which they will receive as an inheritance.

A SOUTHERN MAN.

A CHARGE OF OFFICIAL MALVERSATION AGAINST THE PRESIDENT.

The New York World, of Friday, prefers the following charge of official malversation in selling the public offices for his own benefit, by General Grant. It is of those charges which must be met. We trust, for the honor of the country, it will be; for never was more infamous a charge brought against a President of the United States:

The trouble which Grant is experiencing in reference to the appointments for office in the District of Columbia, according to all reports, arises from the acts on the part of the President which makes him amenable under the bribery law. It is well known to the public that Grant originally sold his house in Washington to Mr. Styles J. Bowen, formerly Postmaster, for forty thousand dollars, entered into a contract to deliver the title, and Mr. Bowen paid the usual ten per cent. to bind the bargain. Subsequently a fund of $65,000 was raised in New York to purchase the house for General Sherman. Grant thereupon re sold it to those parties, but, before he could transfer the title, he found his contract with Bowen in the way, and that gentleman insisting that the property was his, and he the only person who could sell it. Mr. Bowen was willing to sell the house to the parties who had raised the money for the price named, for then by he could make a profit of twenty five thousand dollars. But Grant insisted upon having the twenty five thousand extra himself. How to get at it, and get rid of his contract with Bowen, was a difficult question.

During this time, Grant was pressed by the better class of Republicans to appoint a Mr. Robbins Postmaster of Washington, who had consented to do so, and so notified Robbins' friends. After this promise had been made, and the paper signed for Robbins, the vision of the twenty-five thousand dollars extra on the house again came up, and he finally agreed if Bowen would give up his contract and abandon all claims to the twenty-five thousand extra, that Bowen should have control of all Federal appointments for the District of Columbia. To this Bowen, it is said, finally assented.—Robbins lost the postoffice, and the state has since been made out by Bowen, and Grant has sold the offices for the District for twenty five thousand dollars. He has thus given another example that the true meaning of his motto was, "Let us have peace."

Largest amount of Losses to Widows and Orphans!

The Largest Revenue to the States. And has by far the largest number when compared with 58 Companies reported officially by the Commissioners of New York and Massachusetts it will be seen that the Ætna ranks as one of the first Companies of the Continent. But two of the fifty-eight Companies permitted to do business in New York and Massachusetts had so large an income for the year 1868; but two had so large a number of Policies in force, but one among all those incorporated under the laws of the State of New York had so small a per centage of Expense to Income during the year 1868.

Its expenses are lower than most Companies', and consequently its ability to make and pay liberal dividends to the insured is greater than that of most other Companies. It is one of the great Companies of the land in Income, in Assets, in Number of Policies, in Amount Insured, in Solidity and Strength, in Soundness, Cheapness, Promptness, and Success. Persons contemplating this mode of investment in the future as in the past would do well to examine the claims of all and take a policy accordingly.

FRIDAY, JUNE 4, 1869.

CONSOLIDATION MEETING.

On Tuesday we left the City of Oaks for the City of Elms to be present at the Consolidation meeting.

We fell in on the way with men of the quill, men of the pulpit, the counter and the plough; nor was the bar less represented any more than the medical profession.

We dined with that excellent caterer, our old friend, Dick Gregory at Goldsboro, who understands his business as well as Blair, and has had longer experience in hotel keeping.

We reached Goldsboro without accident but not without fright. As the train turned short curves in the road the wheel of the car would rub the springs. The noise produced by this friction caused uneasiness on the part of many of the passengers. The conductor assured them there was no danger, so no one jumped out while the cars were in motion. Some who were really scared said drive on for their lives were insured. President Smith keeps nice cars and a firm good road bed. At Goldsboro we were reinforced as well as refreshed.—The reinforcements were Messrs. Phil Sasser, Harold Dortch, N. A. Boyden, Jr., and many others. The refreshments were in the shape of new Irish potatoes, snaps, strawberries, and such products as only well worked truck farms and gardens produce.

At 3 o'clock we began the run on the Atlantic and North Carolina Road for Newbern, which we reached in time for supper at the Gaston House. Our friend Moore keeps as good a house as he did before the coming of Burnside. No man ever left the Gaston House sorrowful or hungry, except on the coming of Burnside.

THE EXCURSION.

On Wednesday at 8½ o'clock the Railroad passengers of the day before, were found on deck, of the steamer Ellen Terry, to extend their travels towards the sea.—Among the passengers from Orange we saw our neighbours, Samuel Hughes, George Fauceti, (little George) William Ward. John Burroughs, Charles Johnson, Captain Berry and others. They did not have on dusters as Pool of the Journal of Commerce reports of some of the passengers. The passengers with dusters come from about the old Confederate Navy Yard at Charlotte, where they never learned much about Neptune and his trident.

A part of the Orange delegation we never saw from home before. They are among our best farmers, but they don't compost or travel much. We should like for them to visit the East in early spring, when the compost can be seen. The sight of it would insure the introduction of composting in Orange.

We were not fairly under steam before we passed Forts Lane, Ellis and Thompson, on the right. Opposite Fort Lane were to be seen the obstructions made by sinking vessels in the river to obstruct the passage of our "Northern brethren" to Newbern.—Many of the vessels belonged to Newbern merchants, and many of them were captured by Commodore Lynch from our "Northern brethren." We passed the river obstructions safely, but were reminded, as we passed, that one of our men-of war, in passing in 1862, struck a torpedo which had been set for Burnside and Col. Heaton. We steamed to Wilkinson's Point, 20 miles below Newbern, and returned at one o'clock, all well pleased, and especially those who had never been on ship before.

The company were much indebted to Capt. Chapin, Mr. Dill, and Mr. Ball, for civility and attention, which added much to the pleasure of the excursion.

The one o'clock train from Goldsboro, and the morning train from Beaufort, had added largely to the number of visitors. We visited the market, where we found nice fish, and a great variety of them, from sheepshead down to eels, gars and eels.—The mutton and beef, we will say, was about as good as that found in the Raleigh market, but it was not as good as it should be, or as that country ought and will produce.

We did not attend the ball. The visit to market, the excursion down the river and walks about the city were as much as we could get through with without rest. We observed a number of business houses which appeared to be unoccupied. We learned from business men that trade was dull and money matters tight. They attributed it to the fact that so many field hands had quit the field and taken up their abode in town. We saw upon the coat collar of one of these field hands a large brass plate, and upon it written "Deputy Sheriff."

In Africa where that Deputy belonged, none but an African can hold office.

We left on Thursday morning for home after a short but pleasant trip.

Newbern in the days of the Stanlys, Gastons, Sprights and Bryans, was justly called the "Athens" of North Carolina. Her women were as renowned for their beauty and accomplishments, as her men for their oratory, statesmanship and courage.

We saw the site of the old Tryon palace built in 1770, and said to have covered two acres of ground. The building was three stories high with wings and basement. The brick of which it was built were brought from England. Some of them exposed since that day to the sun and weather are well preserved. The palace was burnt about 1798. The stable belonging to the old palace has been fitted up and makes a very nice academy where children are taught daily.

James Davis in 1749 established the first printing press of Newbern and the Colony.

We like to encourage such meetings, they bring the people of different sections together and each must be benefitted. We heard much talk about stock, corn, cotton, composting, deep ploughing and contracting operations of the farm.

We heard more talk of bees and bee culture than we ever heard before on that subject.

As to consolidation it seemed to be considered on all hands that Holden was the man to "kill or make alive"; it was all in his hands. The great preponderance of the State in each road put it in the hands of the Governor to determine the matter as he might think best. We did not remain to see the end of the Convention. When we left for home the visitors generally left on an excursion for Beaufort Harbor. We copy from the Journal of Commerce the doings of the Convention so far as they have progressed.

THE MEETING AT THE ACADEMY GREEN.

The meeting was called to order on the Academy Green, at four o'clock by the Chairman, Judge Manly. The number of persons in attendance was large, most of those present being directly interested in the object of the meeting—the stockholders of the North Carolina and the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroads. A large platform was erected for the Chairman, Vice President, Committee of Arrangements and Speakers, over which, in large letters, were inscribed the mottoes: "Consolidation," "Union of the East and West," "North Carolina Forever." During the intervals following the conclusion of each speaker, a brass band in attendance, enlivened the meeting with music the favorite air being Judge Gaston's well known ode "Old North State Forever."

THE SPEECHES.

The first speaker was Judge Manly, who addressed the meeting at length upon the issue before it. The Judge said that he had not yet become so old, but that the future of North Carolina awakened in him feelings of deep interest, and he thought that that future could be materially advanced by the consolidation of her railroads—the union of the fertile plains of the East with the magnificent mountains and valleys of the West. Argument upon argument was adduced to demonstrate the facility and utility of the measure. The Judge closed his remarks with a cordial invitation to the delegates to partake of the hospitalities of city, and expressed the hope that they would carry away with them a pleasant remembrance of their visit to the "Elm City."

Mr. A. S. Seymour was the next speaker. He proceeded to show the motives which actuated the Legislature in passing the Consolidation Bill, cited instance after instance to prove the benefits that had accrued to other States and corporations by similar measures and ended by stating that consolidation was a fixed fact, for which the people of North Carolina would hold the originators and those who consummated it in grateful remembrance.

Col. Wm. H. Malone, of Caldwell, was next introduced. The Colonel discussed the subject under consideration for more than half an hour, in a facetious but most happy and appropriate vein, keeping those present "on the grin," so to speak, until he concluded. He spoke of the difficulties under which North Carolina labored, and pointed to consolidation as the most effective remedy therefor. The Colonel drew a pleasing picture of the advantages which would accrue to the State by the measure, and indirectly to the whole country. He pledged himself to use his utmost endeavors to have the Western Extension added to the line after consolidation was effected, and then, with a short grasp filled in, we would have a continuous line to Little Rock, Arkansas, with the prospect of a line of Railroad from the Atlantic to the Pacific. The Colonel made many handsome allusions to our city and people and ended by pledging the people of the West to the proposed measure.

Dr. M. F. Arendell, of Carteret, was next called before the meeting. The Doctor's remarks were brief but to the point. He announced himself and the people of Carteret as ardent supporters of the scheme, and said that he hoped to see all of those present at Beaufort Harbor to-day, where they could have an opportunity of testing the hospitality of the citizens.

Mr. J. H. Haughton then took the speaker's stand. Mr. Haughton said a few years ago the people of this city were much divided on the question under discussion but now they we e almost a unit in its favor. With Colonel Malone he expressed the opinion that a few years would witness a continuous line of Railroad from Beaufort Harbor to the Golden Gate. Mr. Haughton discussed the subject at considerable length and in a very able manner, clearly demonstrating its utility and the benefits that would accrue from it to the State and to the people of this section.

At night the Green was illuminated, and the speaking was continued. Addresses were made by Major R. P. Waring, of Charlotte, John Manning, of Chatham, and C. H. Brogden, of Wayne. Their addresses were argumentative and strongly favored the consolidation measure. We regret that we are unable to give even a brief synopsis of their remarks.

All the speeches were listened to with earnest attention that bespoke the interest felt in the proposed measure. Those who favored it were more than ever convinced of the certain benefits, and those previously disposed to combat its utility were compelled to admit that their opposition was not based on good and sufficient grounds.

We cannot close this article without complimenting the committee of arrangements upon the very efficient manner with which they performed their duties.

What is the matter with the Union League of this city? That club was zealous in its support of Mr. Grant when he was a candidate for President, poured out their money by thousands to elect him, dined and wined him after election, and lavished presents upon him with great profusion. In truth, the Leaguites worshipped Grant as their idol until after he took the oath of office. But all this has changed now. We are informed by a gentleman prominent in the counsels of the League that, out of nearly fourteen hundred members of the club in this city, there are only fifteen who now endorse Grant. All the balance denounce him and turn up their noses when his name is mentioned. It is reported that George Wilkes heads the list of fifteen faithful men; but, with all that he can do, he cannot persuade any more of the Leaguers to stand by the President of their choice.—New York World.

The Continental Hotel at Long Branch was sold by auction on Friday, and was bid in by parties who hold mortgages on the property. The house, furniture, and land, subject to mortgages amounting to $15,000, sold for $140,000. It cost the original owners $350,000.

THE MEN OF THE TIMES.

The history of civil wars attests the fact that at the termination of such conflicts the worst and meanest, and generally the most ignorant class of men float along with the surf and ride temporarily into power.—This further fact is as well attested,—that all such men are contemptible and despised by all good men and even by men like themselves in their own day and generation, and history writes them down as scandalous, infamous and pests to humanity, fit only while living to be execrated and after death to illustrate how low, contemptible and degraded men may become.

The late civil war in this country affords another illustration of these general truths, and this is especially so in the down trodden South. As a consequence of the war we find the worst, the meanest, the most infamous and generally the most ignorant and incompetent men in power and office. While there may be occasional exceptions, what we have said is generally true.

Take a few examples in our own State to give point to what we have said. There is "Gov." Holden. It is well known that he is wholly unreliable in matters of political principle and untrue to party or government. The whole course of his life proves this. In the outset, he was a Whig, for the sake of success, he became a Democrat and a fierce and relentless secessionist and "fire-eater;" he persecuted Union men because they were such; he incited fire eating mobs to drive good men from the State where they were born and raised and had a right to stay; he wrote and spoke for secession and did all in his power as the editor of the leading democratic journal, to precipitate the South into rebellion; he signed the ordinance of secession and said he would make it good with the "last man and the last dollar"; he wrote and talked for the war after, through his aid, it had begun; he urged the young and gallant men of the country to fight for secession, to give their lives and fortunes for it; he even sent his own son into the war for the same purpose When the fortunes of secession began to wane, he began to flinch; indeed, he was false to secession then as he had before been false to the Union; he professed at the close of the war when his country and State were overwhelmed with ruin and desolation through the very war which he thus helped to bring on in the interests of secession and the perpetuation of negro slavery, to rejoice at the overthrow of the South, secession and slavery, and joined the Union soldiery in denouncing the Southern soldiers and people as rebels and traitors, and professed to execrate the very men whom he had always supported, and with whom he had uniformly co-operated politically to bring on the war. He not only execrated such men, but he incited the Federal authorities and government to persecute and proscribe these and such men; he not only conceded the gallantry of the Union troops, their patriotism and success and submitted quietly to the success of the Union, but he did all in his power to swell the triumph of the Federal soldiery, over his fallen countrymen, whom he had incited to rebellion, and he denounced them as traitorous rebels, deserving of extermination and ostracism. He boot-licked and worshiped President Johnson, and denounced everybody in his own State and the South who did not. When Johnson manifested a disposition to encourage the South and lift up an impoverished people and make them feel and realize, that they were still American citizens, and for this was turned upon by the fierce passions of bad men, Holden turned upon him too, and denounced him as a traitor and urged his impeachment and disgrace. At first after the war, this man prevaricated about the negro race and was not willing to allow him to vote or to testify in the Courts; but finding that he could only get into power by professing to worship the negro, he at once did so and rated him as the principle reliable element in this State and the South, and did all in his power to secure negro supremacy, manifest'y to the end, that he might ride into power. He now professes loyalty to the Union and the negro, and hatred for rebels and all the people, who will not say that he is a deserving and patriotic man and a true type of virtue and American citizenship. He daily misrepresents his own people for the sake of gratifying his malice, and to incite the hatred of the Federal government, and the Northern people against the people whom he urged into rebellion and war against the government. This is a summary of this man! Is he not a rich specimen of Southern Loyalty! Who can say that one so false, so traitorous to every government, to every party, to his own people and neighbors, will not for a mess of pottage sell not only his own birthright, but the hopes of his country, its credit, its bonds, its wealth, its prosperity, its very existence to carpet baggers, or any body else! How can the Union trust him? He warred upon that and sought its life! How can the South trust him? He helped to precipitate it into a rebellion which cost it the flower of its manhood and billions of treasure! He deserted it in the hour of its calamity and imminent peril! How can the people of this State trust him? He, he hounded them on to secession and war for years; the war came; the South, the State, secession, the people, failed, and he deserted them in the hour of their desolation and peril; nay, more, he shouted the triumph of the victor and spoiler; he persecuted the victims of his own false and treasonable teachings; he incited the hatred, the revenge of a fanatical power at the North, and did all in his power to stir up a war of races, by trying to convince the negro population that white rebels, (all, all were rebels who did not endorse him,) desired and intended to re enslave them. He helped to place in power the carpet-bag race, who, like vampires, suck out the life blood of the people! He did all this and more. We repeat, how can the people of this State, white or black, trust such a man! O thou hypocrite, not only are you despised and execrated in your own day and generation, but history will write you down as doubly false, mean and infamous.

But there are others in this shameful category. There is "Judge" Rodman. He, too, was a fire-eating secessionist; he was the President of a Military Court during the war, and sentenced many a poor wretch, the victim of his own teachings, to be shot to death, because he would not fight for secession to the death; he would shoot men to death because they wouldn't fight to the death for secession. Secession failed. What did Rodman do? He swelled the triumphs of the victors; he joined in with the party of passion and malice that persecuted his people and State; he worshiped Radicalism, endorsed Holden and became the friend and agreeable associate of carpet-baggers, and, as a partizan, incited the negro race to hate the whites as a race. He joins and sustains the party which persecutes and prosecutes his own people, his friends and neighbors. See him, mark him in his day and generation! History will mark him. He will, no doubt he does, scorn himself! There is that poor, feeble object, Cantwell; he, too, was a fire-eater; there is Victor Barringer, too, of the same type; there are Judges Dick, Settle, and others, whom we can't now remember, who were "fire eaters," false, hypocritical, mean!—The people think so; they must feel so.—Then there is Judge Pearson, (how are the mighty fallen!) Pool, Dockery, and several others like unto them, who manifestly, for the sake of temporary power, for the sake of office, which disgraces rather than honor them, joined the part of persecution, proscription, whose chief object is to humiliate, oppress, injure and plunder a down trodden people. There is no apology for these men; the only motive conceivable, was office, and for the sake of office, they have consented to become odious, despised and hated. The offices they fill, through such means, do not reflect honor upon them; they afford no evidence of merit or capacity, on the contrary, under the circumstances, these very offices stamp them as false and mean. This is the language of truth.—These men feel, to-day, the scorn and contempt of the people whose esteem, whatever they may say, they would like to enjoy, and some of them know enough of history, to see in their hours of coolness and reflection, how they will figure in the history of their State and country. Another thing—the day cometh, and will soon come, when these men will pass out of the offices they now fill under circumstances that do them dishonor. They will be thought of but seldom and then only as a by word and reproach to the State which gives them protection and a home. Mark the truth of this prediction. Who would hold office at such a price!

ANOTHER OUTRAGEOUS SWINDLE.

It seems that the Code Commissioners reported to the Legislature, at its late session, a book of legal forms, adapted to the new Code. For some cause or other, this book of forms did not pass the Legislature, and it, therefore, has no more force and effect, as a law, than this editorial. But, nevertheless, the carpet-bag Secretary of State has this book of forms published and bound, in book form, and sells it to the people of the State as though it had passed the Legislature, and were a part of the statute laws of the State. In order to produce the impression that the book passed the Legislature, it is prefaced by the bill reported by the Code Commissioners, intended to give the book effect as law when it shall pass, if it ever does, the Legislature. The book is generally advertised and we learn that lawyers, Justices of the Peace and other officers, have bought and are buying the book, supposing this official is in good faith, carrying out the work of the Legislature.

Now we denounce this scheme of this official carpet-bagger, as an outrageous swindle. He takes advantage of his official position to deceive and mislead the people for the express purpose of surreptitious gain, and in such way as to do it most effectually. Knowing, too, that such a book, passed by the Legislature, would be much sought after, he prints the book at the very high price of two dollars per copy; it ought to be sold for one dollar; this price would be a good one for it.

Why the book did not pass the Legislature we are not informed, but it is probable that it was, in many respects, defective and imperfect. We understand that many of the forms are very defective, and will, probably, be put aside for others.

But this swindle don't stop at this. The Legislature did pass forms to be used before Justices of the Peace, and these ought to go out to the officers of the State free of charge, and they ought to have been sent out long ago. But this carpet-bag Secretary of State, for his private gain, brings out his edition of this book and supplies the demand before the State official edition, comes out. This book is due the officers free of charge, and the price of the copies sold ought to go into the State Treasury. This same carpet bag Secretary of State did a like thing in reference to the Code when it came out. The State's edition of the Code was delayed until the Secretary sold his edition, and supplied this demand.

We tell the people again, that these carpet-baggers are here for the purpose of fleecing them in every possible way; they are not only here for this purpose, but they accomplish their purpose most effectually. When these men came here, they had nothing; now they sport fine horses, fine clothes, diamond rings and pins of great value.—How did they get all these things? They did not work for them. "Railroad rings," "Penitentiary rings" and other sorts of rings, are the means through which they grow rich off the people, and are enabled to outrage everybody white and black. They don't care any more for party or principle than the buzzard that sails through the air, what they want is prey and this they will have and as soon from a poor negro or scallawag as from anybody else.

Now, who sustains these carpet-baggers? Who gives them position and countenance and influence? Our "loil" "scesh" "Governer," Holden! If he were disposed to turn upon these men and sustain the white and black radicals of the State, he could silence the carpet baggers forever. These fellows have corrupted the Legislature, they have corrupted the negroes of the State as far as they could, and many of the whites, and "Governor" Holden knows this as well as we, and yet he sustains them, they are his advisers, aiders and comforters and chief associates. They afford him agreeable society and official and personal pleasure.

Well, go it Holden and carpet-baggers! You'll see where you will land by and by! People of North Carolina, don't you expect to prosper and become a great people under the lead and guidance of such men!

The Age of Progress.

We publish to-day, the first scheme in the sale of Real and Personal Estate ever chartered by the last Legislature, with a capital of one hundred and thirty thousand dollars, and with power to increase that amount to five hundred thousand dollars. An examination of the charter satisfies us that the Company is pursuing a legitimate business; they are empowered to "dispose of Real and Personal Estate in any mode or form they may deem best," and "no laws, or clauses of laws, coming in conflict with said charter are hereby repealed." This is plain and unmistakable English and we have no fear of the transactions of the Company will prove beneficial to the property holders of North Carolina. For example: Mr. A. owns a piece of real estate which he wishes to dispose of. He throws it upon the market, and fails to get a bid that will warrant him in making a deed. He then places it in the hands of the North Carolina Real and Personal Estate Agency, at a fair valuation, and the property is sold by chance—the owner gets his price—the Company a fair and reasonable compensation for selling—and some poor man, for two dollars comes in possession of a homestead, which, under any other circumstances, he would not have owned.

In fact, we do not view the Company as a Lottery—it is what it purports to be, a simple Agency for the sale of property, for its true value, which, otherwise would be sacrificed.

We refer our readers to the advertisement of the splendid real estate offered, and the other rich prizes, amounting in all to THREE THOUSAND ONE—and the reader will perceive, by the simple rule of division, that there is one prize to every twenty-four tickets.

The General Agent of the Company has given us a call, and assures us, that the success of the Company is no longer a problem. In thirty-five counties through which he has just traveled, he represents the people as being enthusiastic in favor of it—both as to investing, and the placing of property in the hands of the Company for sale. He represents that already, before one single grand drawing has taken place, applications to the amounting to half a million dollars, are on file in the Secretary's office.

We learn from the Raleigh papers, that the exemplanatory drawing which took place in the city of Raleigh, on Saturday last, passed off to the decided satisfaction of a large audience assembled in Tucker Hall to witness it.—We Post

One three cent stamp must accompany every order. All tickets will have the seal of the Company and signature of the Secretary.

☞ We refer to any Merchant, Banker or other gentleman of standing in the city of Raleigh.

Explanatory Drawing.—The Drawing by the Real and Personal Estate Agency, anxiously looked for by persons who had taken stock, came off on Saturday, according to published programme. The weather was weeping, but the expectant people were not deterred by that, and went in numbers to Tucker Hall to watch the operation. A good deal of excitement was caused when the owners of lucky tickets claimed their prizes as their number was drawn.

THE SENTINEL.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

FRIDAY, JUNE 4, 1869.

MEETING.—The Mechanic's Building and Loan Association will meet this evening at 8 o'clock, in the Court House.

All members who are not prepared to pay their monthly dues will be subject to a fine as prescribed in the By-Laws.

SATURDAY MARKET.—Kirkham proposes to have stall fed Beef and fine Lamb in Market, on Saturday (to-morrow) morning. Call early and get choice cuts.

PRINCE LAFLIN.—This ex-State Proxy of the North Carolina Railroad is yet on hand. We hear he has not been among his constituents but once since his election. Well, who can blame him. Men are said to be social animals, and Laflin partakes of the characteristic of his kind. If he should go to Pitt there are but few white men who would associate with him. It is a pity Holden should call in his free passes, on the Railroads of the State, by failing to make him State proxy.

The Governor's proxy has had some hard lessons in good manners, while travelling by Rail. On one train he was required to apologize for allowing his dog to drink out of the cup used by ladies. On another occasion, a conductor collared and seated him at a proper distance from the ladies, who were annoyed by his Bowery Street familiarity.

Governor, send your Proxy home, or to Pitt. This City can do without him.

STIR AMONG DETECTIVES.—The Governor's detectives are moving. Two of them reached the city last evening. It is thought the Alamance expedition will be repeated. Jones County will be the scene of the operations. Can't the cock fight, to come off soon at Weldon, be adjourned to Jones. We heard, in Newbern, that 25 of the prominent citizens of Jones were to be arrested. We sent word to the Alamance people to give Holden's detective militia no excuse for a breach of the peace. We hope the people of Jones will act as did the people of Alamance. Holden will send only enough to provoke a collision, and not enough to suppress any riot or disturbance.

The Governor has cried long enough for peace. Now he is determined to conquer a peace. We think Judge Watts or Thomas should accompany the militia and detectives.

THE PHILOSOPHY OF ECONOMY.—In these times of financial depression and unreconstructed prosperity, he who makes two blades of grass grow where but one grew before, and she who makes one patch on a garment save the purchase of a new article, and thus like the Scotch cotter's wife, "gars auld claes look amist good as the new," does a great deal towards remedying the privations and discomforts to which we have been and are yet painfully subjected. Of this sort of economy, the philosophy of which is so apparent, is a job lately turned out at the coach shop of Mr M. B. Barbee for G. W. Wynne & Co.; a fine specimen of carriage, of modern style, light and pleasant, and finished off in the most excellent manner, and which was changed into its present shape from an old, dilapidated vehicle, a fit perch for the chickens of the vicinity of the livery stables.

It gives us great pleasure to chronicle such evidences of thrift and economy in our midst, and we suggest to all who may have work in this line to be done, either of repairing or new work, to call round and examine this specimen and acquaint themselves with the quality and price of such work at home before sending abroad.

LOST HIS CANE.—"Our beloved" lost his Cane but found the office of Attorney General which Coleman had taken off.

Where are the detectives? No use in your going in search of that Cane. The citizens along the line of the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad will look out for the Governor's Cane, it is a large black Cane with a gold head, about one fourth the size of Cebo's. It being the same stick with which he would fain beat a preacher.

We hope James Harris will tender his black Cane to the Governor, until his is recovered. Cebe Harris' is too heavy; it would break the old man's constitution if as many places as he breaks the State Constitution, by going round to the grog shops with such heavy weight upon him.

James lend him your Cane.

WORST REGION.—A prominent citizen of Chapel Hill, suggested to President Pool, the propriety of the whole Faculty of the University resigning. President Pool said he would not do so for 50,000 dollars. If the institution was not patronized he could have it closed for four or five years, and he would do so. He intended to remain the President. We dont think Solomon and his associates, Brewer and Company could close it more efficially than they have done.

PERIODICALS.—The London Quarterly Review for April, is upon our table and presents to the reader its usual amount of excellent reading matter.

The table of contents is as follows: Rassam's Abyssinia, Modern English Poets, Geological Climates and the Origin of Species, Cost of Party Government, Dante Alighieri, Female Education, Travels in Greece, The Religious Wars of France, Aims of Modern Medicine, Irish Church Bill.

BLACKWOOD for May is also at hand, and is a most excellent number of this invaluable Magazine. We have only had time to give the many excellent articles contained in this number, a hasty glance therefore cannot dwell upon their merits, but in this hurried and imperfect notice, we direct attention to a vigorous and beautiful poem entitled "How Lisa loved the King," by George Eliot. The numerous other entertaining and interesting pieces will amply repay one for the trouble of a perusal.

STATE NEWS.

WILLIAMSTON & TARBOROUGH R. R.—It is with much pleasure that we are enabled to announced that the work on this Road is being energetically carried on.

There are 100 hands engaged at work near Williamston, grading and clearing, 40 at Robasonville, under H. D. Robason, sub-contractor, who has already graded more than a mile. There are also about 20 hands employed on this end of the line, making in all about 125 employed at this time. It is expected that this force will be considerably increased in a short time and no further delay may be anticipated.—Tarboro South-erner.

KILLED.—We learn that James Murrey, of Alamance, recently shot and killed Jas. E. Smith, late of Petersburg, Va. Murrey was guarding Big Falls Cotton Factory, as we learn, in the night, when Smith attempted to pass by in the public road; Murrey says he hailed him three times, and received no answer, fired and killed the unfortunate man who leaves a wife and children to mourn his loss. Smith lived on the premises of one of the Murrey's, and probably worked in the Factory.—Milton Chronicle.

SINGULAR.—We have the word of a gentleman in Person county whose veracity is unquestionable, for the following facts that happened a few years back—perhaps ,since the war—

His little son, then but 18 months or two years old, had been playing by himself in the garden, when he went into the house and asked his mother, without emotion, who was buried in the garden. His mother told him his grand father and uncle John—the latter had recently died. The child remarked that "he saw his Uncle John standing in the garden with a corn stalk in his hand who said there would be another person buried there next day. Sure enough an Uncle Robert (whose death was unknown,) was buried their the next day.—Milton Chronicle.

THE MAILS.—Mail Route Agents on the R. & D. R Road, attention! Why is it that we did not get Saturday's Richmond mail by the Whitlock post of Saturday night? Keep your eyes open, gentlemen, and attend to your business right, or you will hear it thunder, if you do not "walk the plank."

N. B. Please say to old Miss Van Law, the Postmistress of Richmond that there's a screw loose somewhere about her establishment—she's playing the devil with the MAILS for those parts from the North of Richmond. Her "girls" must not be so fond of the "mails" as to detain them in her office. A priviledge, however, we will accord them if they are all old maids like herself, unless they attend political meetings with Lewis Dindsey, and sit with him on a boot blacking rostrum.

Afternoon—Cotton more active. It is thought that the sales will reach 12,000. Stock afloat, 617,000. Amer ican 140 000.

The will of the late Dr. James Rush, of Philadelphia, devises all his large fortune, with the exception of some trifling bequests, to the Philadelphia Library Company for the erection of a branch library, which shall serve as a fitting memorial to his father-in-law, Jacob Ridgeway, and his deceased wife, Phoebe Anne Rush.—Dr. Rush is best known outside of his own city as the author of "Rush on the Human Voice," a book which has served as the basis of all recent works on elocution. Mrs. Rush was long the leader of Philadelphia society, and was noted for her princely hospitality. Her father, Jacob Ridgeway, was a millionaire in the time of Girard, with whom he was very intimate. The library which receives the bequest of his wealth was founded by Benjamin Franklin, and is said to be the richest, in valuable old books, of any in America.—N. Y. World.

The coat of an English lady of the period as she appears at a ball or a theatre is said to be about $15,000. To this must be added from fifty to seventy five cents as the total value of the lady herself—total, $15,000.75.

A dry goods dealer in Wasbahaw, Wisconsin, disappeared last week. He kept up appearances and deceived his creditors by having over four hundred pounds of wrapping paper done up in remnants of calico, muslin, cloth, cassimere, &c. People thought he had a large stock, when he had scarcely anything of value on the shelves.

GENERAL NEWS.

THE ERLANGER ARMAND SUIT.—The case of the United States against Erlanger, banker, and Armand Brothers, ship builders, which involves $6,000,000, arising out of a Confederate ship contract and the deposit of money for carrying out the same, will be brought before the French Court of Appeals in a short time. Jules Favre has been appointed principal counsel for the United States in place of M. Berryer, lately deceased. The whole case will be re-opened, and additional testimony will be introduced to rebut certain affidavits which were put in evidence at the last trial.—Wash. Cor. N. Y. Times.

THE CROPS IN CALVERT COUNTY, MD.—Corn planting has been delayed very much by the excessive rains, but it is now generally fined, and the farmers are very busy planting and getting their land ready for tobacco. The supply of plants is abundant, and the fine season on Friday enabled almost all to plant a considerable quantity. Every effort will be made to put in a large crop this season. Wheat is looking very well, but only a very small quantity was sowed last fall.—Calvert Journal.

Judge Alex Rives, of Virginia, is urged for the position of United States Judge under the new law reorganizing the courts of the United States. The Judge is a member of the present Court of Appeals of the State, a brother of the late Wm. C. Rives, and an able lawyer.

THREE YOUNG LADIES DROWNED.—In the township of Woodland, Barry county, Michigan, on the 19 h ultimo, three young ladies, attended by three young men, went out in a small boat on Jordan lake for a pleasure ride. After getting into deep water one of the young ladies fell overboard, and in the effort to save her the boat was capsized, precipitating the whole party into the water. One of the young and all of the young ladies were drowned.

The trial of Robinson, at Jacksonville, Illinois, for the murder of Geo. Murray Mc Connell, progresses slowly. Six days have already been consumed in impaneling jurors and the examination of witnesses, and the end is not yet. Probably another week will elapse before a verdict is reached, if then. The evidence for the prosecution yesterday tended strongly to criminate the accused.

General Beauregard is expected to visit Staten Island in a few days.

A TOWN OF THREE MONTH'S GROWTH.—The town of Corinne, the son of the mushroom cities that sprung up and vanished as the Union Pacific Railroad progressed, seems likely to become a permanent city.—Though not more than three months old, it has upwards of ten thousand inhabitants, a municipal organization, several hotels, dry goods, auction and commission stores, a banking house and a daily paper. The streets have been numbered as high as "Thirteenth," and municipal ordinances looking to the health and cleanliness of the city are enforced by efficient police. The daily paper is crowded with advertising, and indicates exceeding activity in business. Corinne must be set down as one of the wonders of the interior.

ROBERT SOUTTER OF GRANVILLE COUNTY,
realizing the importance of spreading the growth of Wheat in this County; and the farmers, knowing so well the absolute necessity of supplying themselves at an early period with "Seed Wheat" of the finest quality, ready to plant in the Fall, the undersigned takes this early method of inviting applications from farmers, for what they may require to plant next Fall, of the very "Select Seed Wheat" which he expects to deliver at moderate prices, from the crop growing now at his "Oakland Farm" near Townsville, in this County.
This Wheat was planted last Fall, with Guano, of seed selected in Baltimore with great care by my predecessor, Mr. Chas. H. B. Taylor, who paid $3,25 for it there. It has had the advantage of a heavy top-dressing in Spring of Chicago bone Fertiliser, and is now very promising.
Like the good Sorghum Seed which I have offered to the farmers of Granville, I hope the orders for my "Seed Wheat" may be equally attractive, to absorb all that I can expect to spare of it.
Address me at Kittrell's Springs, or Mr. Thos. W. Taylor, at Oakland Farm.

HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITIES SAY OF THE BROOKLYN LIFE!
"A Company that makes such endorsements on its policies, gives the strongest pledge that it will fulfil its trust faithfully, and keep its reserves sufficient."—HON. ELIZUR WRIGHT.
"The BROOKLYN LIFE has placed itself in the vanguard of insurance reform, and is the first Company that has done full and complete justice to the insured."—INSURANCE TIMES, Jan. 1869.
THE BROOKLYN LIFE, ALONE OF ALL OTHER LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES, GUARANTEES A DEFINITE SURRENDER-VALUE IN CASH, AND EVERY POLICY ISSUED BY THAT COMPANY, BEARS A CERTIFICATE STATING WHAT THIS EXACT WORTH WILL BE IN DOLLARS AND CENTS, AT ANY TIME, AFTER THE PAYMENT OF TWO OR MORE PREMIUMS.
"The BROOKLYN LIFE has made no half-way work of the adoption of this inestimable feature. It is noteworthy, in this connection, as a merited tribute to the excellent Company (Brooklyn Life,) which has so gallantly raised the standard of reform in Life Insurance, that we find in the whole list of existing Companies, few competitors which deserve so much credit in respect of economy of management, or care, skill and judgment in the selection of risks."—INS. The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid, and now pays to its policy-holders, LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,
For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have, and can show, thousands upon thousands of certificates of remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and why should we publish them? Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates, containing neither mineral or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.
They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.
Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—
For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.
For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice, or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.
For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.
For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.
For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.
For Suppression a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.
As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.
An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus. There are numerous cases where a purgative is required, which we cannot enumerate here, but they suggest themselves to everybody, and where the virtues of this Pill are known, the public no longer doubt what to employ.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,
For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.
Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and in young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.
Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.
Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it.
Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.
Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.
So generally are its virtues known that it is unnecessary to publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

WRITTEN AT MY MOTHER'S GRAVE.

BY GEORGE D. PRENTICE.

The trembling dew drops fall
Upon the shut eyed flowers like souls at rest;
The stars shine gloriously, and all,
Save me, is blest.

Mother, I love thy grave!
The violet, with its blossoms blue and mild,
Waves o'er thy head—when shall it wave

'Tis a bright flower, yet must
Its bright leaves to the tempest bow;
Dear mother, 'tis thine emblem—dust.
Dust is on thy brow!

And I could love to die,
To leave untasted life's dark bitter streams,
By thee, as erst in childhood, lie,
And share thy dreams.

And must I linger here,
Treasin the plumage of my sinless years,
And mourn the hopes of childhood clear,
With bitter tears?

Aye, must I linger here,
A lonely branch upon a blasted tree,
Whose last frail leaf, untimely sere,
Went down with thee?

Oft from life's withered bower,
In still communication with the past I turn,
And muse on thee, the only flower
In memory's urn.

And when the evening pale
Bows like a mourner on the dim blue wave,
I stray to hear the night-winds wail
Around thy grave.

Where is thy spirit flown?
I gaze above—thy look is imaged there;
A listen—and thy gentle tone
Is on the air.

Oh, come, while I press
My brow upon thy grave—and, in those mild
And thrilling tones of tenderness,
Bless bless thy child!

LIFE INSURANCE.

NATIONAL

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF THE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Chartered by Special Act of Congress, Approved July 25th, 1868.

CASH CAPITAL,

PAID IN FULL.

It is no longer a question with any man, who tenderly loves his wife and children, who considers how helpless would be their condition in case of his death, as to the duty of taking out a LIFE POLICY, but as to which Company he shall pay his money.

If he reflects a moment he will conclude to patronize the Company which shows the greatest degree of vitality, which extends its business over the largest area, which is a Home Company in every locality; which furnishes insurance at the least cost; which issues no policies that are forfeitable should he be unable next year, or any subsequent year to pay his renewal; and which is undoubtedly able to meet ALL ITS PROMISES.

With these feelings and views, he looks over the newspapers and, by the time he gets through reading the advertisements of Mutual or Mixed Companies, he finds his mind so muddled that he is at a loss where to go or what to do. He can not comprehend one-half that is written, and concludes that none but ACTUARIES, who are familiar with the principles upon which Life Insurance is based can comprehend or explain anything about dividends and his liability for notes given in part payment of premiums. In his dilemma, he looks into the plan adopted by the

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

U. S. A.,

and finds just what he wants:

An ALL CASH PLAN, reduced to the LOWEST MINIMUM Rate, like any commodity in Market, so much Insurance for so much Money. No notes to give; no interest to pay; no anxiety about Assessments; no apprehension of his Policy being forfeited next year if he does not pay his annual Renewal; and the RATES so much LOWER than other Companies, that he realizes a larger Dividend, IN ADVANCE, than other Companies can pay him in the future.

He finds that, instead of this UNCERTAIN PROMISE, and present high rate, that the presents a certain and definite sum for a much lower rate, and puts up its paid up Capital of

as a guarantee fund, that its contracts will be fulfilled, and, like thousands of others, cheerfully calls on their Agent to make his application for a Policy. Hence the unprecedented and most wonderful success of the NATIONAL as contrasted with the older and Mutual Companies.

The Company issued its first policy on the 1st of August, 1868, and up to March 1st, 1869, it had issued 3,582 policies.

Amount insured,	$10,005,550.00
Total Premiums,	350,117.03

The whole number issued by the Connecticut Mutual in the first year of its existence was 892

By the Mutual Benefit of New Jersey, 693
" New England Mutual, 343
" Phoenix Mutual, 335
" Massachusetts Mutual, 312
" Equitable of New York, 277

The Mutual Life, of New York, in the first year of its existence, only issued 470 policies,
In its 10th year, 1,269 "
And in its 20th year, 2,842 "
this latter being 690 less than was issued by the NATIONAL in its first seven months.

CAPITAL OF THE STATE,

Daily, Semi-Weekly and Weekly.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him.

It will be the zealous and fearless advocate of the CONSTITUTION of the United States, seeking to bring the people back to their ancient reverence for that immortal instrument, and to restore the policy of the country to that honored standard, as the only guarantee of National prosperity.

It will do justice to the men and measures of the present day, whenever they may merit it, but it will unsparingly lash and denounce all who set themselves up in opposition to the Federal Constitution, and hold up to the public indignation corruption and imbecility in high places.

It will ardently seek the promotion of the best interests of North Carolina,—moral, educational, material and political.

THE LATEST NEWS

From every quarter, both by mail and telegraph will be carefully collated and presented.

Full and correct market and financial reports will be given.

And, in one word, no effort will be spared to make the SENTINEL, in all respects, a reliable

CAUTION! WE desire to warn the dealers in, and consumers of Snuff generally, that since the war, certain Tobacco Manufacturers, being unable to find a market for their snuffs, felt themselves obliged to counterfeit the general appearance of our packages, and imitate our Trade Marks so that a close inspection is necessary to detect the spurious article from the genuine, and others going so far as to assert that "Lorillard's Snuff is no longer made."

In making this publication we desire to warn the public against the impositions practiced upon them, as they are the losers thereby. It will be found, upon comparison, that Lorillard's Snuff is "far ahead" of all others, being made of the best stock, after an original and secret process known only to ourselves, besides possessing great age, strength and cleanness, and is warranted not to contain any dangerous or deleterious substances, which cannot be said of many worthless articles put on sale by others. The best is the cheapest in the end. A circular will always be mailed on application. In ordering please specify if Salt Snuff (High Toast,) or Fresh Snuff (Extra Scotch) be desired.

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC

CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

THIS BOILER IS MOST EFFECTUAL, reliable and universally recommended. It can be used on any Stove or Range, in any boiler, and the LOW PRICE of the article places it within the reach of every family.

This Boiler operates upon purely philosophical principles, is self-acting, and dispenses with labor and the wear of the clothes.

The hot suds and steam, by the action of heat, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing all articles, from the finest lace to the coarsest blanket. For Flannels it is invaluable, as it does not full them as in the usual process of rubbing and pressing.

A lot time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes is twenty to thirty minutes, and nearly three hundred gallons of boiling suds are forced through the boiler, thoroughly loosening and eradicating the dirt WITHOUT LABOR or friction.—A thorough rinsing finishes the process.

Washing day will no longer be a terror and dread to housewives. The cost of the Boiler will soon be returned in the SAVING OF TIME AND LABOR, and the great saving in the wear of clothes.

The great value of this invention appears so clear, and appeals so surely to common sense, that we have deemed it unnecessary to accompany its introduction with numerous letters of approval, &c.

No invention has met with such ready sale and given such satisfaction. Call at LOUGEE & BROTHER'S, and see its wonderful operations.—We have the exclusive right to sell and manufacture in the state.
